The Princeville Civic Association met on the above date and time. Beth Duttlinger brought the meeting to order and had supplied an agenda. Those present were David Schaefer, Beth Duttlinger and Sue Hofer.

Minutes presented by Beth Duttlinger from the March 10 meeting were approved in a motion by Sue Hofer and seconded by Dave Schaefer. All ayes. No nays. Motion carried. Minutes presented and read by Beth Duttlinger from the May 12 meeting were approved in a motion by Sue Hofer and seconded by Dave Schaefer. All ayes. No nays. Motion carried.

Sue Hofer gave a treasurer's report. There is $1.42 in the ticket account, $400.00 in the flag account and $4,541.42 in the regular account. A check to the Village of Princeville had been written for $200.00 for flowers. Sue has cancelled the event insurance, since at this time there are no major events planned.

Belinda Rodriguez has talked with the school about the PCA scholarships for this year. Two $300.00 scholarships will be given to seniors who write and turn in an essay about volunteerism. Seniors have been notified and their essays are due by June 17. Belinda had also let us know that the Princeville State Bank would be giving the PCA a donation of $500.00 in June.

Sue Hofer had talked with the carnival vendor. He was understanding that Heritage Days was cancelled. He said that he had the second and third weekends in October open if we would like to have Heritage Days at a later date. Other events coming up later in the summer are the Troutman Park Breakfast & Run, the Lions Club Corn Boil on August 29 and the Spoon River Drive is the first and second weekends in October. Also, the funeral home does a Trunk or Treat the Sunday before Halloween. The PCA for many years has done the free hot dogs at the firehouse on Halloween late afternoon.

The flags will be flown on five holidays starting on Memorial Day. There might be a need for a couple more flags.

The library will be hosting three music events in June at Stevens Square. On June 12 will be New Cats, on June 19 will be PS Jazz and on June 26 will be the Aristocrats. Each event will start at 7 pm.

A motion was made by Sue Hofer and seconded by Dave Schaefer to adjourn at 5:32 pm. The next meeting will be at Troutman Park at 5 pm. Meeting adjourned.
