Halloween Cookout: Town Square Saturday October 31st. Sue will pick up supplies last minute. She wants to wait until she hears what the weather will be to get an approximate amount. Masks and gloves will be worn by workers. On the menu are hot dogs, chips, lemonade. No chili. Beth, David, Sue and I will be there to hand out the food. Setup will start at 4pm. The event will be advertised through the community newsletter, posters distributed in the community and with facebook.

Holiday Homecoming/Small Business Saturday: November 28 is still tentative. We are unsure if this will happen this year due to restriction on people vs. space. Options were being investigated by Lindsey to see where it can possibly be held. Lindsay polled last year's vendors and they are not interested in an outdoor event. The Museum is unavailable so Lindsay is working to locate another venue or move online. Lions are unsure if they will be able to serve breakfast at a live event. We will decide at our November meeting if this event will take place.

Picture booth and angel tree are being checked into by Sue and Beth. Santa is being checked into by Tiffany. Boy Scotts possibly stuffing a truck with can goods is being checked into by Beth. Lions Club and the Masons will possibly serve food. Letters will be sent to businesses in town this week. Once we see response we will decide if we want to move forward with Scavenger hunt.

Heritage Days 2021: Potential date is set for the 4th weekend in June. Amy is contact the carnival to reserve the dates of June 24-26, 2021.

New Business: No new business.
